

GRADUATE SCHOOL IN THE HUMANITIES

Learn more about pursuing a Ph.D. in the Humanities from a PANEL OF UC IRVINE GRADUATE STUDENTS

Jessica Christian, History

Research focus: race/class relations among women in colonial and postcolonial San Diego.

Hillary Branman, English

Research Focus: 19th and early 20th century American Literature.

Mark Villegas, Culture and Theory

Research Focus: Filipino and Filipino American Hip Hop Culture.

April 12, 2013

1:00 p.m.

UH-252

Open to all HSS students.

Sponsored by the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, the Department of American Studies, the Department of English, Comparative Literature, & Linguistics, the Department of History, the Asian American Studies Program, the African American Studies Program, the Chicana/o Studies Program, and the UCI Office of Humanities Graduate Study.

For more information, contact Dr. Jesse Battan at jbattan@fullerton.edu.