

Academic Advisement Worksheet for Comparative Literature Majors

The Comparative Literature major consists of 42 units.

I. REQUIRED COURSES (30 units)

A. Basic courses required of all Comparative Literature majors (12 units)

ENGL 300, Analysis of Literary Forms (3 units)

SEMESTER

GRADE

ENGL 307, Advanced College Writing in English Studies

CPLT 324, World Literature to 1650 (3 units)

CPLT 325, World Literature from 1650 (3 units)

and one of the following:

SEMESTER

GRADE

CPLT 450, Medieval Literature (3 units)

CPLT 451, Literature of the Renaissance (3 units)

plus an additional 9 units of upper-division Comparative Literature courses, selected from among the following:

SEMESTER

GRADE

CPLT 312, The Bible as Literature (3 units)

CPLT 315, Classical Mythology in World Literature (3 units)

CPLT 355T, Images of Women in Literature (3 units, variable topic)

CPLT 380, Introduction to Asian Literature (3 units)

CPLT 381, African Literature (3 units)

CPLT 382T, Topics in Asian Literature (3 units, variable topic)

CPLT 383, Literature of the Americas (3 units)

CPLT 384, European Novel (3 units)

CPLT 499, Independent Study (1-3 units)

B. British and American Literature (6 units)

COURSE

SEMESTER

GRADE

To be selected from adviser-approved upper-division English courses

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT WORKSHEET FOR COMPARATIVE LITERATURE MAJORS

C. Breadth Requirement (6 units)

COURSE	SEMESTER	GRADE
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

6 adviser-approved units in related fields, such as anthropology, history, art history, music, history, or philosophy

II. ELECTIVES (9 units)

COURSE	SEMESTER	GRADE
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

To be selected among upper-division literature courses listed under the following: Comparative Literature, English, French, German, Italian, Russian, Spanish.

III. READING COMPETENCE IN FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Requirement can be met either by examination or by successful completion of an adviser-approved 400-level course offered by the Department of Modern Languages & Literatures, provided the course is not taught in translation. This course may also count as an elective for the Comparative Literature major

LANGUAGE: _____

METHOD OF COMPLETION: _____
(examination or course)

DATE OF COMPLETION: _____

ENGLISH EDUCATION NOTES: Students who intend to enter the Secondary Teaching Credential Program in Comparative Literature should meet with an English Education adviser for information on requirements for the Comparative Literature major and the Secondary Credential Program in Comparative Literature.