Join us to celebrate the release of DASH vol. 6: CSUF's own literary journal! This year's journal is full of amazing talent that we can't wait to introduce. At the event, we will have readings by some of DASH's featured writers, music, and food. Copies of DASH 6 will be on sale at the event for $10. Admission is free, so bring a friend and enjoy an evening listening to some of the best writers around!
